UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. ANTHONY SHORTER, 2:16CR00173

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
January 2, 2019

On June 26, 2017, Your Honor sentenced Shorter to 21 months imprisonment, followed by 36 months of supervised release for committing the offense of Theft of Government Property. On November 13, 2018, Shorter commenced his term of supervised release in the District of Nevada.

On December 3, 2018, Your Honor issued a warrant for Shorter's arrest for violating his conditions of supervised release, including refraining from the use of a controlled substance, C.A.R.E. Program, and Home Confinement with Location Monitoring.

On December 6, 2018, Shorter appeared before the Honorable Nancy J. Koppe for his initial appearance regarding revocation of supervised release. The Court ordered that Shorter be detained for a period of seven days. On December 10, 2018, Shorter was released from custody and returned to the C.A.R.E. Program. On December 14, 2018, Your Honor granted a stipulation to continue Shorter's revocation hearing until June 27, 2019, to allow Shorter the opportunity to complete the C.A.R.E. Program.

As outlined above, Shorter has violated the terms of his location monitoring agreement six times since his release on December 10, 2018. The undersigned officer approved a three-hour window, 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM, on Saturdays and Sundays for Shorter to drug test if required. Shorter has repeatedly left his residence over an hour late knowing that he will be unable to return back to his residence by 11:00 AM on the bus. Furthermore, on December 30, 2018, Shorter sent a text message to the undersigned officer requesting permission to go to the store when he did not have a schedule in place. Shorter took it upon himself to leave his residence without the permission of the undersigned officer. Finally, on January 1, 2019, the undersigned officer granted Shorter permission to go to Wal-Mart from 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM. Shorter failed to return to his residence by 11:00 AM and did not go to Wal-Mart, instead going to Mario's WestSide Market.

Based on the conduct outlined above, the undersigned officer respectfully requests that a warrant be issued for Shorter's arrest and that he remain in custody pending resolution of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
